PINCHED FOUR TIMES IN WEEK; GOES TO COUNTY JAIL AT LAST

John McTie, who had the unique distinction of being arrested four times in one week by the local officers for drunkenness, was taken to Martinez yesterday to serve a sentence of 15 days in the county jail. He was arrested for the last time by Officer Wright on Sunday.

County School System Is In Good Condition

Superintendent Hanlon Declares That He Welcomes Investigation by Grand Jury.

County Superintendent of Schools William H. Hanlon stated yesterday that he welcomes any examination of the school system of Contra Costa county that the Grand Jury may want to make. Several days ago reports were published in several of the county papers to the effect that Foreman Anderson of the Grand Jury, and some of his colleagues on the inquisitorial body plan to go over the school system thoroughly with the possible view of getting new textbooks for some of the subjects taught.

Hanlon, in speaking of the matter, said the Contra Costa school system is as good as any in the state and is superior to most of the counties in the state.

"We are working, according to the law and its limitations," said Hanlon. "There are certain things we would like to do in my department in the county that we cannot do. There is nothing wrong with the school system here. The textbooks used are the ones generally used in the best schools. I am always open to suggestions. It is easy for people young a generation ago to find something now they think could be done better in the schools. It is not so easy to prove the methods of school teachers of a generation ago back are the proper methods.

"I am willing to listen to any suggestions that are worth while. The schools are the schools of the poor and the rich, and all elements of society have to have just, fair and impartial treatment. I propose to give the children of all this just treatment.

"I am always open to suggestions, but I do not always agree with the cranks who think their way, which is many times an ancient and antiquated way, is the best way."

The funeral will be held from the Smallwood parlors today.

R. E. LANNUM IS HELD TO ANSWER

Ray E. Lannum, formerly a local Santa Fe employe, was held to answer to the Superior Court at his preliminary hearing, held last night before Police Judge Lindsey. His bail was set at $1000, which he has been unable to furnish. He spent last night in the city jail. Lannum's attorney, C. A. Odell, will endeavor to find bondsmen for the young man today.

On the stand Lannum admitted having left his wife over a year and a half ago. He declared he had been all over the East and West in the past year and a half, searching for a job, but had been unable to find one.

He said he had been unable to support his wife and child.

What chance Lannum had of getting off at his preliminary was shattered because a material witness, Elmer Fisher, was not in court. Fisher, according to Mrs. Lannum, could offer testimony to the effect that he was traveling with her son several months when young Lannum was seeking work, and could testify that he was penniless.

Mrs. Lannum, who was formerly Miss Mamie Linney, was in court. On the stand she testified that her husband had left her and had made no effort to provide for the child. The wife's parents, as well as her babe in arms, were also present. On one occasion the proceedings were interrupted by the crying of the baby.

Odell asked that the $1000 bail be reduced, but Judge Lindsey denied the request.

LOCAL WOMAN SENT TO NAPA

Mrs. Margaret Gavin, wife of a well-known Standard Oil employe, who suddenly went insane last Saturday, was examined before a lunacy commission in Martinez yesterday. At the conclusion of the examination the unfortunate woman was ordered committed to the Napa State Hospital by Superior Judge Latimer.

The illness of her small boy had preyed on Mrs. Gavin's mind for months. On Saturday she broke down under the continual strain.

Late Monday afternoon her condition took a turn for the worse and the examining physicians said yesterday that her mental condition was serious.

PLAN SOCIETY FOR KANSANS

Many Richmond residents, who formerly lived in the state of Kansas, were in attendance at the meeting of the Kansans, held in the Hotel Oakland in Oakland recently. At the session the advisability of forming an east bay society of Kansans was discussed at length.

Next Friday night the Kansans from Richmond, in company with the Kansans from other east bay cities, will meet in Oakland to form a society. All former residents of Kansas are invited to be in attendance at the meeting. A room in the Hotel Oakland has been set aside for the meeting.

WOMEN AFTER ARC LIGHTS

CROCKETT, May 19.—The Carquinez Women's Club had a very busy session at its regular meeting and many matters of interest to the community came up for discussion. Amendments were made to the constitution which will be read at the next meeting.

At the request of the club Don C. Ray, manager of the Contra Costa district of the Pacific Gas & Electric Company of Martinez, was present to speak of the possibility of lighting this community. He said it would take 25 taxpayers' signatures to secure a special election and said he thought the lighting could be accomplished for a reasonable figure. A committee was appointed to go over the ground to ascertain the amount of lights that would be necessary and report at the next meeting. The contract for lighting would go to the lowest bidder.

GRAND JURY INVESTIGATES CHARGES OF SALOON MEN

MISS SILVAS, THOUGH ILL, IS CONFIDENT

Miss Olivia Silvas, the pretty and popular local girl who has made such a spectacular campaign for votes in the great Daily News Popularity voting contest, is confined to her bed with appendicitis and was told yesterday by her physician that it would be impossible for her to leave the house for at least a week.

This sudden illness right at the crucial period in the campaign has not discouraged Miss Silvas, who declares her belief that her many friends who promised their support will now do their part towards winning for her, despite the eleventh hour illness.

HALL TO OPPOSE INJUNCTION TO STOP DREDGING

Tomorrow City Attorney D. J. Hall will appear in the District Court in San Francisco, and there resist the request of the Mintzner estate that the court grant the Mintzners an injunction to stop the North American Dredging Company of Nevada from dredging. The Mintzners last week asked for the injunction, and state that the dredging company, which is dredging out the south channel of San Pablo canal for the city, has damaged properties of the estate. Damages from the company to the [illegible] states he is prepared to offer resistance to the granting of the injunction, inasmuch as it will mean the temporary, if not the permanent, stopping of the work.

UNION MEN AND OTHERS ARE CALLED

The Grand Jury yesterday delved deep into that dark, mysterious meeting between representatives of the labor unions and representatives of the booze interests, prior to the recent campaign.

The saloon men declare that they were shocked by bad language and that they were threatened. They alleged that the union men told them that the union men will support a dry measure if the saloons persisted in fighting the union candidates. The booze men accuse the union men with threatening to call a wet and dry election if the union candidates were not supported by the saloon vote.

This is declared an infamous lie by James Kennedy, H. J. Wildgrube, Richard Williams, W. F. Petillon, the four men who represented the campaign committee of the labor candidates at the meeting.

The reason for the meeting, declare the four men, was to demand an explanation for the threats made to James Snee by Henry Sirrenborg, west side saloon keeper. Sirrenberg assaulted Snee and told him that the saloon men would drive the union labor [illegible] into the bay.

The labor candidates, thinking it probably a threat of bodily injury for all of the labor candidates, called the meeting and demanded an explanation of the heads of the Royal Arch organization.

Testimony was also taken in connection with the charge against Editor Matson of the Daily News. In fact, it is said, more time was spent on it than on the dark plot against the poor, timid booze men.

Those who were called before the Grand Jury were Councilman O. R. Ludewig, W. M. Pennington, H. J. Wildgrube, Joseph Kennedy, Richard Williams, W. F. Petillon, Henry Mayer, John Hansen, E. S. Brown and Charles Brown.

At 5 o'clock the Grand Jury adjourned to convene again at the call of the foreman.

ELMER CAREY FUNERAL HELD

Many of the friends of Elmer Carey, former well known Richmond man, who died at the County Hospital at Martinez last week, were in attendance at the funeral services held from the Curry undertaking parlors yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. With bowed heads, the many mourners saw the remains of the former popular saloonman lowered into the grave at Sunset View cemetery. Prior to his death Carey had been in ill health for many months. He leaves a large number of surviving relatives in Michigan.

IS THE SEAMEN'S ACT DRIVING THIS COMPANY OUT OF BUSINESS?

No statement has ever been more industriously circulated than Mr. R. P. Schwerin's recent announcement that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company would have to go out of business because it could not meet with the "unreasonable requirements" of the new Seamen's Act.

The Seamen's Journal has from time to time replied to these inspired editorial writings. Every old criticism and every new objection raised against the Seamen's Act by the Vice President and General Manager of the Pacific Mail Company has been met and answered over and over again. Still, the Journal now proposes to show just "once again" that the new Seamen's Act is not responsible for the decision (!) of the Pacific Mail Company to go out of business. And this time the showing will be made by language out of Mr. Schwerin's own mouth.

The Pacific Mail Company has never been a money-making concern except as an adjunct to the Southern Pacific Railrood, which holds the majority of stock. However, as a feeder to a transcontinental railroad it had its distinct value until the Panama Canal was completed. Then conditions changed and long before the Seamen's bill was enacted into law the Pacific Mail Company had threatened to go out of business.

To quote from testimony given by Mr. Schwerin before the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, February 1, 1913:

MR. (W. B.) WILSON—Do I understand that you are going out of the shipping business, so far as the American flag is concerned?

MR. SCHWERIN—Yes, sir; and your bill will wind up the American flag on the Pacific Ocean. That ends it.

MR. WILSON—In other words, is it your purpose to stay in the business if that bill does not pass?

MR. SCHWERIN—Mr. Wilson, I explained before that the canal bill will put the Pacific Mail out of business, so far as the Panama route is concerned, by law. You understand that, do you not?

The foregoing ought to be sufficient to show the real reason why the Pacific Mail Company is considering going out of business.

If Mr. Schwerin's company is going out of business it is due to the Panama Canal Act.

Mr. Schwerin himself has said so; yet, he is now trying to "make believe" that the Seamen's Act is the criminal guilty of the offense.

Three Little Suctions

hold the Schafhirt Roofless Teeth as firm as a rock in the mouth. I have proved conclusively that the logical place for suction is on the soft ridge or gum and not on the roof of the mouth. My way leaves the roof of the mouth free as nature intended.

4030 Lyon Ave., Fruitvale, Cal.

The plate you made for me without a roof is as firm as a rock in my mouth and gives as good service as my natural teeth did. It is a pleasure to eat now, as I can chew anything.

When I first saw a picture of the teeth in one of your "ads" I could not see how three little suctions could hold a plate in my mouth so tight that I could eat and talk comfortably, but they certainly do and leave the whole roof of my mouth free. I am telling all my friends about this wonderful invention.

Yours gratefully, M. A. HARRIS.

Read this letter from one of San Francisco's most prominent newspaper men:

My Dear Doctor Chan:

I am more than pleased to be able to endorse your effective method of herb healing. With a painful attack of acute muscular rheumatism, after having tried Swedish Massage and later the remedies of a well-known specialist, I came to you on the advice of Mr. Shoong, proprietor of the China Toggery, who stated that you were the best Chinese practitioner he knew.

With some apprehension as to your ability to accomplish what the others had severally failed in, I commenced taking your herb teas, with the result that in a few weeks I found not only that the rheumatism has been eliminted, but along with it indigestion and a long standing constipation which had threatened to become chronic. It will always be a pleasure to recommend you to my friends, as I have already done in many instances, feeling confident that in any case where you state you can cure, a cure will be accomplished through your remedies. Very truly yours, H. R. HURLBUT.

How the Ballot Box Was Sealed

The judges, selected by the Board of Directors of the Daily News met at the Daily News office at 2:30 p. m. yesterday for the purpose of sealing the Ballot Box. The committee is composed of the following prominent men of Richmond. They are all citizens of the highest integrity and standing in this community, and their decision is bound to be absolutely fair and impartial:

O. R. LUDEWIG, Merchant and City Councilman.
CHAS. G. YONCE, Merchant.
J. W. SMILEY, President Central Labor Council.
REV. T. A. BOYER,
W. M. L. LANE, City Councilman.

The Ballot Box was sealed in the following manner: The Box was locked and the key given into the keeping of the Chairman of the Judges. Then strong tape was tied around the Ballot Box, the ends of which was sealed by the Judges. Into the empty Ballot Box the Judges then placed yesterday's Daily News containing the last published standing of Candidates. The Judges then took the sealed Ballot Box to the First National Bank of Richmond, and deposited the same in the vault of the bank, there to remain until the night of the final count, Monday, May 24th.

JUDGES OF CONTEST SEALING BALLOT BOX

How Subscriptions Will Be Turned In

The Greatest Contest now rests entirely in the hands of the Judges and candidates themselves. No subscriptions, money or ballots are handled by the Contest Department from the time the last offer expires—10 o'clock Thursday night. The contestants themselves, will from this time on, place in the Sealed Ballot Box all subscriptions, extensions and the proper amount of money for the same; also reserve ballots any of the candidates may have. Special envelopes will be issued to the candidates in which they may place their subscriptions and the proper amount of money for the same. Votes will be issued for the proper amount in the form of either gold, silver or paper currency, P. O. Money Order, or Wells-Fargo Money Order. No private check or bank drafts will be accepted. Extension votes will only be issued on extensions that have the number of previous subscription written on same.

After enclosing the subscriptions and the proper amount of money for same in these special envelopes the candidates will seal them securely (with sealing wax if desired,) and place them in the Sealed Ballot Box in the vault of the First National Bank. There they will remain until the time of the final count—midnight of Monday, May 24th.

WHAT DOUBLE VOTE SCHEDULES MEAN

They represent the final golden opportunity of every candidate in the race. Ten wonderful opportunity days in which to gather DOUBLE VOTES and place them directly in the SEALED BALLOT BOX. This sets the pace for the Final Skirmish of the Great $2000.00 Popularity Voting Campaign, and, judging from the intense interest all the candidates are showing speculation among the many friends of the contestants as to the likely winner will hold the interest spellbound until the last minute—MIDNIGHT, May 24th.

With the great opportunity of the DOUBLE VOTE OFFER and the adsolute fairness and impartiality of the SEALED BALLOT BOX the candidates will fight a battle royal for supremacy and throw off their last trace of hesitancy in the effort to place their names at the very top of the list on May 24th.

This plan of closing a newspaper contest is a new innovation that the Daily News is proud to be one of the first papers to use. It is the result of a long-felt desire and effort on the part of some of the most reputable publishers of the United States to contrive a means of closing a newspaper contest that cannot help but be fair and impartial to every candidate.

HOW THE FINAL COUNT WILL BE MADE

Promptly at midnight, Monday, May 24th, the judges of the contest will meet to make the Final Count. They will break open the Sealed Ballot Box and take from the same the sealed envelopes, also to-day's issue of the Daily News containing the last published standing of candidates. They will then break open the sealed envelopes and count the final and reserve votes to the credit of each candidate. These they will then add to the last published vote total of each contestant, and thus determine the GRAND FINAL VOTE TOTAL OF EVERY CANDIDATE. The judges will then promptly announce and certify who the winners are. The magnificent prizes will then be immediately awarded.

This method of closing the great contest is certainly the fairest conceivable. No one in the world except the candidate himself can know what votes are placed in the SEALED BALLOT BOX. Only when the judges open these sealed envelopes and make the final count, will the results be known. Thus an absolutely impartial close to this clean cut contest is positively assured every one of the candidates.

MEYERS CHANGES HIS MIND AND HIS PLEA

Samuel Meyers, awaiting trial in the Superior Court upon the charge of grand larceny, has a very changeable mind. When examined before Justice C. H. Hayden in Martinez he admitted his guilt. When arraigned before Superior Judge Latimer he changed his plea to not guilty.

Yesterday Meyers asserted he wanted to plead guilty and will seek probation. He was arrested for stealing a quantity of steel from the Mountain Copper Company.

RELIGOUS FILM TO BE SHOWN AT RICHMOND

Julius Steger well known actor and for years the hero of the matinee girls, is appearing at the Richmond theater today and tomorrow in the drama, "The Fifth Commandment." The play is one of great interest and has been a great drawing number wherever shown. It comes here direct from the largest theaters on the coast and will be seen for the two days only.

Another great star who will be seen for the two days is Rose Tapley, in the three-reel Broadway star feature, "The Lady of the Lighthouse." Everyone who knows anything about the world of photodrama is acquainted with the fine work of this talented actress.

Last but not least, there is Charlie Chaplin in the Keystone howl, "Mabel's Strange Predicament." The bill is one of feature plays all the way through and promises great interest for theater-goers.

WILL CONTEST IS STILL IN COURT

So much contradictory testimony has been given during the hearing of the contest of the will of the late Mrs. Francesca Maciel of Crockett that the verdict of the jury sitting in the case at Martinez will be anxiously awaited.

Manuel P. Maciel, the second husband of the deceased, has several members of the Portuguese colony in Crockett on his side while the Enos children have an equal number willing to stand by them.

The question of whether Mrs. Maciel was sane or not when she executed her last will and cut her husband off with nothing but an insurance policy will be up to the jury before many hours elapse.

SOCIALIST CLASS MEETS TONIGHT

If the progressive minded people who always or usually vote the Socialist ticket and then adjourn until next election would attend the meeting at Socialist Hall this evening they might learn something to their advantage and to the cause, declare the supporters of the class.

The subject for the evening is "Political Organizations," which included not only the activity that keeps the Socialist party alive, but also the nomination of candidates without which those who find it so easy to be Socialists once a year or so would have nothing to vote for. The study course has been running for two months. Meetings are free. All are welcome.

FIGHTERS ALL ANXIOUS FOR THE GONG TO RING

With the near approach of Friday night, the fight fans of this city are all saving their jitneys, in order to have the necessary kale of the realm entitling them to admission to Kirby Floyd's big boxing show to be staged in the Eighth street pavilion. The matchmaker thinks the show will be just a wee bit better than the last one. There will be no longer waits. Each fight will be pulled off at the conclusion of the preceding one. Plenty of boxing gloves will be on hand this time.

Fred Graham, the human toothpick, and Ed Brown, the fast brace of bantams, who will furnish the main event, are putting the finishing touches to their conditioning.

Jack Albright and Jim Lafferty are training hard for their mill. Milne and Kid Wunlick wil go into the ring determined to kill each other off as soon as possible. That should be a classy mill.

Young Butch never has seen his opponent, Ivey Johnson, and he don't know just how good this Johnson party is. But that makes no difference to the most popular little mitt slinger in Richmond. He is going in there to win, and he will have several score of his frends there to root for him.

Duffy vs. Duffy looms up like the scientific mill of the night. These boys both look like future champions, and the winner between them is due for a special event before one of the Oakland clubs. Mitts will fly in every direction, and some one will probably hit the canvas before Kid Green of Oakland and Bob Hogan of Alameda, lightweights, get through furnishing the curtian raiser.

Jimmie Silvas, the dean of Richmond referees, and one of the best in the business in the state, will do the refereeing, while "Foghorn" O'Hara will use his beautiful tenor voice to good advantage in announcing the fighters and famous sporting celebrities as soon as they make their appearance.

Good factory conditions and union workmanship make the "Stag Pants" superior. Sold by Jones, Adkison & McRacken. tf-adv

WINEHAVAN IS ON LONG END

Although Cheek's Cubs had a good, strong team in the field against Winehaven Sunday afternoon, Winehaven, led by General Elmo Pinkerton, beat the Cheek gang by the score of 6 to 2. Winehaven has suffered several defeats this season, and Sunday's score would indicate that the Pinkertonians are tired of being on the short end.

The game was interesting from first to last. Penny Thurber was the batting star of the day, getting three safe crashes off of Pitcher Jardene, Winehaven, by the way, poled out 13 base knocks, while the best the Cubs could do was to get six safe clicks off of Pinkerton.

The Cubs claim they can reverse the existing order of things, if given another chance, and it is probable Winehaven and the Cubs will be seen in action against each other again in the near future.

ELKS ARE SURE STINGING THAT OLD BALL

Some of those Richmond Elks are traveling some with the stick, to judge from the batting averages compiled by Scorer O'Hara. It would be hard to find a heavier hitting club in the bushes, judging from a glance at the averages of the members of the team for the nine games the locals have engaged in up to date this season.

Frank Gordon is the technical leader, while "Brick" Devereaux is the real leader of the team. Gordon, Devereaux, Daniels, Woodbury and Cunningham are all hitting over .300.

The team batting average figures out .333.

The official averages follow:

	AB.	R.	BH.	Pct.
Gordon	10	0	6	.600
Devereaux	19	4	10	.526
Daniels	19	6	8	.421
Woodbury	27	5	11	.407
Cunningham	26	5	11	.307

SPORTING GOULASH

George A. Carrere, sport impresario of Martinez, says quite a bunch of the boys will be down from Martinez to see the fights on Friday night. The Encinals beat Cheek's Outlaws by the score of 15 to 8 at the Cheek diamond at Tenth and Lucas Sunday. Mount and McAllister pitched for the Outlaws, while Moitoza and Zeimer were the catchers.

San Pablo's Juniors beat the Berkeley Independents Sunday by the score of 9 to 0. Sharkey and Palmgrut pitched for the victors, and Donato did the catching. The Independents made eight boots.

Devereaux and Daniels have both played in five games this season. Both have registered one or more hits in every game. Frank Gordon has played in four games, and he also has hit safely in every session.

After playing one game with Petaluma, Jimmy Reardon, former Trolley League star, Venice Coast Leaguer and late of San Rafael, has decided to change berths again. Determined to build his club up and put a lot of pep into after its disastrous defeat at the hands of Petaluma Sunday, Bert Delmas, manager of the Sebastopol nine, has secured Reardon to catch for him. Delmas is contemplating several other changes, which he will announce later. If Delmas wants pepper he will get value received from Reardon. Reardon is a cracksjack catcher. He is always in there fighting. Sometimes he shows just a little too much jaz at umpire baiting.

"Young" Bill Croll, who will play for the Alameda team Sunday, is a classy performer. Although only a kid, Croll has already had a tryout with Spokane in the Northwestern. For a short time he was in the Trolley League. This year he started with St. Mary's College, and he made a hard stab for a regular berth on the St. Mary's team. But the going was just a wee bit too hard. He was up against some veteran campaigners when he tried to beat Joe Maher out of third, Hamilton out of second, and "Cap" Childs out of third.

BASEBALL DANCE WILL DRAW HUNDREDS

Dance lovers of this city are looking forward with expectancy to Saturday night. For that is the night of the dance of the Richmond Elks baseball team, which will be given at East Shore Park. The funds derived from the ball will go into the coffers of the Richmond Baseball Association.

All of the baseball celebrities of the city are planning to be in attendance at the ball.

It will be an affair that will be talked of for weeks afterward. It will be the dance of dances.

Competent floor committees have been appointed who will see that all attending have a good time.

Richmonn has a first class baseball team; just ahout the best in the state outside of organized ball. So far this season the weather has been bad. Frankly speaking Luce has lost money this year. He lost money for a greater portion of last year. Now Luce and his baseball associates are asking the public for help. If you attend the dance, you are guaranteed full value in enjoyment.

VISITORS TO HAVE FAST LINEUP

If anyone is laboring under the delusion that the Elks are up against anything easy when they take on the Alameda nine on the lot Sunday, "anyone" has another think coming. Bill Luce received the lineup of the visiting aggregation yesterday. Every one of the visitors is a star, and this bunch of stars has the happy faculty of being able to play together like a gang of National League veterans. It is going to be one of those kind of ball games you read about, but seldom see, when Devereaux sends his peppy warriors in there against Alameda. But to return to the Alameda lineup. Here it is: Nelson, pitcher; Kaney, catcher; Bartel, second base; Croll, third base; Hollywood, shortstop; Pfleger, left neld; Mackey, center field; Gay, right field.
